

Mothers Plan Camping For Troop 1055

Monthly meeting of the Mother's club of Den 3, Pack 228 C, was held at the home of Mrs. Arnold Hunstead, 21120 Hobart, to plan the forthcoming pack meeting to be held Tuesday, March 27, 7 p.m., at the Halldale school auditorium. Plans are moving ahead on the Easter egg hunt to be held for Den 3 on Saturday, March 31, at Torrance park. The next monthly meeting of the Mother's club will be held at the home of Mrs. Lon Venable, 1559 West 223rd st., on Wednesday, April 11, at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Warren Beggs Named President of Seaside PTA

Mrs. Warren Beggs was elected as president of Seaside PTA for next year at the recent general association meeting held in the school auditorium. Other future new officers are: Mrs. W. Wudzke, recording secretary; Mrs. E. Sellmeyer, treasurer; Mrs. Ted Drake, first vice-president; Mrs. David Daniels, second vice-president; Mrs. J. Keyes, third vice-president; and Mrs. Melvin Shrader, fourth vice-president. Mrs. A. Yackie will be next year's corresponding secretary, with Mrs. A. Roslin, historian, and J. Dunworth, auditor. After the recitation of the Pledge of Allegiance the program proceeded with a short talk by Reverend E. Miller,

Calvary Sets Pot Luck Dinner Night

The monthly church fellowship pot-luck dinner will be held tonight, March 27, at the Calvary Community church, at 6:30 p.m. The church is located at 1117 Milton street, at the corner of Milton street and Raymond avenue. This will be a meeting to consider the material to be used in Vacation Bible school, which will be held during the summer. Families are welcome, said Reverend Donald Flentge. There will be recreation furnished for the children at the time business is conducted.

Mrs. Palmer Orseth Heads 259th Place PTA Officers

Mrs. Palmer Orseth of 26215 President st., was elected president of 259th Place PTA at the annual election meeting of the association. She will succeed Mrs. R. E. Pranin at the close of the school year in June. Others elected to complete the list of officers were: Mrs. W. N. Kepley Jr., first vice-president; Mrs. H. B. McDonald, second vice-president; Mrs. R. M. Nordgren, third vice-president; Mrs. H. M. Rabjohn, secretary; Mrs. T. R. Biglin, treasurer; Mrs. R. E. Christofferson, auditor; and Mrs. R. P. Bodermann, historian. Mrs. H. B. McDonald, chairman of the nominating committee, presented a report of candidates for the elective offices. Miss Frances Dastarac spoke on the great need at the Mental Health clinic in San Pedro which serves the complete harbor area. Mrs. R. E. Pranin reported that the rag and paper drive was successful. The money received will be divided equally between the school and the PTA. The council project for the month is clean nylon hose to be used for the stuffing of toy animals. Mrs. W. N. Kepley Jr. introduced Dean Hazel Wheadon as the moderator of the panel program. She presented five students who spoke of the great differences in education in America and in their respective lands. Hostesses of the afternoon were the A1-B2 mothers. John Garton's room won the ice cream treat for the most parents present at the meeting.

Park Garden Club Hears Landscaper

Ken Terry, noted landscape and garden authority, spoke at the recent meeting of the South-west Park Garden club, held at the Carl Steele school. He gave numerous hints helpful to both new and experienced gardeners. Carl Throup, the temporary chairman, called to order the business meeting which preceded the lecture. Anyone living in the South-west Park area is eligible to the club, Mrs. Fern Bresford announced. Those interested may call her at FR. 9-9287. Meetings are held on the

Walteria Bruins Beat Seaside

The Walteria Bruins nosed out the Seaside Park team 31 to 29 to win the 5th and 6th grade league title in a Southern League game. Walteria will play in the city championship by virtue of their big win. Bob Zack and Gary Vincent paced the Bruins with 10 and 8 respectively. John Appelby was the big gun for Seaside as he hit for 14 points.

Mothers Plan Camping For Troop 1055

Mothers' club of Girl Scout Troop 1055 met at the home of Mrs. Mildred Ristine, 5149 Carol drive. Plans were made for an overnight camping trip to be held Monday, March 26. This troop consists of twenty-eight scouts under the leadership of Mrs. Eleanor Berry and Mrs. Eleanor Underwood. There will be a four-day trip to Camp Pajarito in June. Colored slides of picturesque Camp Osito-Rancho were shown by Mrs. Berry. Some of the scouts will camp there this summer.

The troop was visited recently by Mrs. Stella Isenhower Flewelling, local poetess and artist, who read excerpts from her new book, "Listen, I Dream." Mrs. Flewelling presented a copy of her book to the troop for its library. The girls held a recent cook-out at Torrance park. They are currently taking swimming lessons at the Long Beach YWCA and will start folk dancing lessons in April.

Twelve of the scouts celebrated the 44th Anniversary of the Girl Scout movement at the annual May Company Girl Scout Birthday Party. Mothers who were served dessert were: Mesdames Aldred, Bardeen, Berry, Cook, Ettinghausen, Fitzgerald, Jean, Lowe, Underwood, Ristine, Sprangenburg, Steele, and Butenmuller. The April meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Lowe, 5017 Ave. B. Mothers will be notified of the exact date, Mrs. Berry said.
